Ben,

It was great to see you yesterday and I am pleased that you are open about the opportunities we discussed.

As for next steps, may I suggest you reach out to Joe Badaracco to talk about LCA. It may be worthwhile to participate in some teaching group meetings this spring and to sit in on some classes to prepare for your teaching next year.

Also, feel free to reach out to Angela Crispi, to explore the merits of an executive coach and joining the IT Advisory Group.

Best,
Nitin
